Apply for this job

Information Technology Web & Media

       Position ID: 2016 – E– 203

       Position Location: Washington Metro Area

       Duration of Position: Full-Time

       Need Date: Immediate

Intelligence Consulting Enterprise Solutions, INC. is looking for a ITWM specialist.

Description:

The successful candidate will develop content and maintain associated systems for agency internal/external websites, including sites hosted on classifies networks. Will plan, design, and perform content enhancements/updates to websites. Recommend best practices, develop guidance and content standards, and ensure both are met and maintained. Design and build web pages using a variety of graphic software applications, techniques, and tools. Design and develops user interfaces, site animation, and special effects elements. Contribute to the design groups' efforts to enhance the appeal of the organization's online offerings. Designs the website to support the organization's strategies and goals relative to external communications. Requires knowledge of web-based technologies including browsers, ASP pages, HTML code, object-oriented technology, and graphics software. Ensure website content is current, accurate, and reliable. Ensure websites are available to desired audience with appropriate links and security designed into system and maintained. Provide advice on strategies to maximize available content on distributed servers. Install, configure, operate, and advise on the acquisition of multimedia equipment and supporting media products. Provide technical support for meetings, conferences, teleconferences, video teleconferences, and multimedia projects supporting public relations objectives and strategic objectives of the government office. Provide remote-access training via video teleconferencing and video production. Plans, executes, directs, and edits multimedia project productions in support of government customer task requirements and strategic objectives.

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in systems engineering or related science or engineering field
- 5+ years of Security System Engineering Integration of large, complex systems
- 5+ years of development or administration of security appliances, network equipment or secure operating systems
- Proven ability to utilize systems engineering techniques and principles to determine technical security engineering requirements within complex systems
- Experience in one or more security engineering areas, specifically associated with identity management, authentication and authorization; secure communications, data marking/labeling, access and releasability; secure storage, secure communications, auditing and policy management and enforcement; network and security within cloud-based environments; cross domain/controlled interface solutions
- Demonstrated experience in working highly visible, major government project engineering and integration activities
- Experience in strategic and technical planning

- Knowledge of DIA portfolio's
- Experience associated with IC agencies and the DoD
- Excellent customer relationship and presentation skills
- Clearance – active TS/SCI
-

Desired Qualifications

- Advanced degree in a technical field
- Experience developing and implementation planning of complex systems or enterprises
- Professional certification, commensurate with experience and compliant with DOD 8570
- Knowledge of agile engineering
- Demonstrated operational experience with intelligence systems
- Knowledge and experience with security engineering policies and procedures supporting DCID 6/3 and ICD 503
- Experience associated with security engineering and system development integration