Software Developer/Programmer

Position ID: 2016 – E – 206

Position Location: Washington Metro Area

Duration of Position: Full-Time

Security Clearance   TS/SCI Clearance REQUIRED

Need Date: Immediate

Description:

Intelligence Consulting Enterprise Solutions, INC. is looking for a Software Developer/Programmer.

The candidate designs and develop software, determination of interfaces, and technical feasibility analysis. Directs and performs requirements and implementation analysis, design, development, testing and enhancement of application software. Directs and/or performs integration of COTS and other existing code.

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in systems engineering or related science or engineering field
- 5+ years of System Administration/System Engineering Integration of large, complex systems
- 5+ years of development or administration of security appliances, network equipment or secure operating systems
- Proven ability to utilize systems engineering techniques and principles to determine technical security engineering requirements within complex systems
- Demonstrated experience in working highly visible, major government project engineering and integration activities
- Experience in strategic and technical planning
- Knowledge of DIA portfolio's
- Experienced associated with IC agencies and the DoD
- Excellent customer relationship and presentation skills
- TS/SCI clearance

Desirable Qualifications:

- Advanced degree in a technical field
- Experience developing and implementation planning of complex systems or enterprises
- Professional certification, commensurate with experience and compliant with DoD 8570
- Knowledge of agile engineering
- Demonstrated and experience with intelligence systems
- Demonstrated operational experience with intelligence systems
- Knowledge and experience with security engineering policies and procedures supporting DCID 6/3 and ICD 5023
- Experience associated with security engineering and system development integration

Ideally, this individual will have broad knowledge of the NGA and other Intelligence Community (IC) architectures and missions, both current and future. Additionally, strong communication skills are required for both customers. This individual should be able to work independently and proactively communicate with the rest of the team.